The Tutorial:

Shoe Sole:

Round 1: Chain 10, single crochet (sc) in the 2nd chain from the hook, 1 sc in the next 7 chains, then make 5 sc in the last chain. Working back along the opposite side of the chain, make 1 sc in the next 7 chains, and 2 sc in the last chain. Slip stitch (sl st) to the first sc. (Total of 22 stitches)

Round 1

Round 2: Chain 2, half double crochet (hdc) in the same stitch, 1 hdc in the next 7 stitches, 2 hdc in the next 5 stitches, 1 hdc in the next 7 stitches, and 2 hdc in the last 2 stitches. Slip stitch to the beginning chain-2. (Total of 30 stitches)

Round 2

Round 3: Chain 2, hdc in the same stitch, 1 hdc in the next 12 stitches, 2 hdc in the next 3 stitches, 1 hdc in the next 12 stitches, and 2 hdc in the last 2 stitches. Slip stitch to the beginning chain-2. (Total of 36 stitches) Do not cut the yarn. Continue to work on the sides and toe of the shoe.

Round 3

Shoe Sides and Toe:

From this point on, you will work in continuous rounds. There's no need to slip stitch at the end of each round; simply make your next stitch directly on top of the stitch from the previous round. Using a stitch marker or safety pin can be helpful to mark the beginning of each round.

Make 2 soles

Round 4: Chain 2, work 1 hdc in each stitch all around. (Total of 36 stitches)

Round 5: Work 1 hdc in each stitch all around. (Total of 36 stitches)

Round 4-5

Round 6: Work 1 hdc in the next 12 stitches, then work a decrease over 2 stitches (dc2tog) a total of 6 times, and finally work 1 hdc in the last 12 stitches. (Total of 30 stitches)

Round 7: Work 1 single crochet (sc) in the next 12 stitches, then work dc2tog 4 times, and finish with 1 sc in the last 11 stitches. (Total of 28 stitches) Tie off and weave in the loose ends.

Add Decorations to the Baby Shoes!

I opted for the pre-made bows and flowers available here. These little embellishments are charming, diminutive, and can be effortlessly affixed. However, you can also choose to hand-cut some ribbon and fasten it with a knot! Either approach will result in an adorably cute outcome!
